RULES.

1.—That this Society be named "THE HAMPSHIRE FIELD CLUB," and that the object of the Club be the study of the Natural History and Antiquities of the County.

2.—That the Club consist of ordinary members and honorary members.

3.—That scientific men of distinction, non-resident in the County, may be proposed and elected as honorary members of the Club, at any meeting of the Committee, such honorary members not to exceed twenty-five in number.

4.—That ladies be eligible for election as members of the Club.

5.—That the annual subscription of ordinary members be seven shillings and sixpence, due in advance on the 1st of January, and from new members on admission. That the names of persons newly elected be not entered on the list of members until their subscription has been paid.

6.—That the Financial Secretary be required to give notice to members in arrear, and that the Proceedings of the Club be not sent to any whose subscription shall remain unpaid. The name of any member in arrear for one year shall be removed from the list.

7.—That the Head-Quarters of the Club be at Southampton.

8.—That the Government of the Club be vested in a Committee, to be elected annually, and to consist of the President, the Vice-Presidents, the Treasurer and Secretaries, ex-officio, and not less than six other members. The President and Vice-Presidents shall not hold office for more than two years consecutively.

9.—That three be a quorum of the Committee.

10.—That the Committee be empowered to appoint Local Secretaries for any part of the County, who shall be ex-officio members of the Committee.

11.—That persons who are members of any recognised Scientific Society, publishing proceedings, be eligible for admission as members of the Club without ballot, and that other persons, having been duly proposed and seconded by two members of the Club, may be elected to the Club by the ballot of the Committee.

12.—That the proposer of any candidate be required to state the particular branch of Natural History or Antiquities in the study of which any candidate for admission into the Club is engaged, or is interested, or any other qualification, or special line of study.

13.—That in order for any such candidate to be elected a member of the Club, the ballot by the Committee be unanimous.

14.—That the Club hold not less than four ordinary field meetings in each year.

15.—That an annual meeting for general business be held in the early part of each year.

16.—That the financial report of the Club be brought up at the annual meeting in each year.

17.—That any member of a recognised Scientific Society, publishing proceedings, be eligible to attend any field meeting of the Club as a visitor, on the introduction of a member of the Club.

18.—That each member of the Club be at liberty to introduce one visitor (who may not be a member of any recognised Scientific Society) to each field meeting of the Club, but not the same visitor more than once in any one season.

19.—That members of the Club who do not attend any meeting, after they have given notice of their intention to attend, be liable for their share of any expenses which may be incurred by the Committee in connection with such meeting.

20.—That the Club discourage the practice of removing and rooting up rare plants from characteristic localities, and the extermination of rare birds, and also use its influence with landowners for their protection.

21.—That the Club use its influence to promote the preservation of objects of antiquity.

22.—That the number of members be limited to 250, but the Committee are empowered to include beyond that number persons of special attainments, or likely to promote the objects of the Club. Other candidates may be elected as vacancies occur.

REPORT FOR 1890.

Read at Winchester 25th April, 1891.

In presenting their report for the year 1890, the Committee of the Hampshire Field Club desire in the first place to express their sorrow at the loss they have sustained through the death of their esteemed Vice-President, the Rev. Thos. Woodhouse, M.A., Vicar of Ropley. Mr. Woodhouse was one of the five gentlemen who met for the first time on the 20th March, 1885, and founded the Club. Thus identified with us from the first, he always took an active interest in our progress and gave the weight of his ability and experience to our proceedings. Whether as an organiser of excursions, or only present at our meetings, his intelligence and counsel were equally valuable. All who knew Mr. Woodhouse will agree that he deserved to bear the grand old name of gentleman, and the members of the Hampshire Field Club will feel that they have lost a friend.

The Committee also desire to mention with regret the death of the Rev. Canon Collier, F.S.A., which took place only a short time after he attended, as a visitor, the annual meeting at Winchester last year. Canon Collier had retired from the Club some time before his death, but was a member, and rendered it good service in its early days.

At the first Field meeting of the year, a proposal to limit the number of members of the Club to 250 was carried unanimously, and is likely to prove a wise measure. The Committee have power to elect anyone of special distinction in connection with the work and objects of the Club above that number. The roll stands at present at 251, and many candidates for membership are waiting for admission. The names of those who are in arrear for their subscriptions, and have not replied to applications made to them, will, therefore, in future, be removed from the list in accordance with Rule 6, and others admitted in their place.

Since the last Annual Meeting Part IV. of the Proceedings has been published. It is a larger number than those previously issued, and completes the first volume. The editor, the Rev. G. W. Minns, has compiled a valuable index, and for this, as well as for the able way in which he has from the beginning fulfilled the office of editor, he merits the best thanks of the Club. A proposal made last autumn to raise the annual subscription to 7s. 6d. did not meet with universal support. The object was solely to meet the increasing expense of publishing the Proceedings and to provide more and better illustrations; to this purpose the whole of the increased sum thus raised would have been devoted.¹

The usual Conversazione under the joint auspices of the Hampshire Field Club and the Hampshire Literary and Philosophical Society, held at the Hartley Institute on the 23rd April, was largely attended, and the annual meeting was held at Winchester on the 29th April. The Committee feel under deep obligation to those who again permitted them to meet in that ancient City, which occupies a central position in the County, and is generally convenient to members.

¹ This augmentation of the subscription was subsequently agreed to at the meeting held at Winchester, when this report was read (April 25th 1891) and was immediately adopted with regard to the admission of new members. On and after January 1st, 1892, the uniform rate of subscription will be 7s. 6d. for all.

During 1890 five whole day meetings were held, one afternoon botanical meeting, and one afternoon archæological meeting in Southampton. The meetings were as follow :— At East Meon on the 29th May, at Wonston, Stoke Charity and Micheldever on the 2nd July, at Shalfleet and Newtown (Isle of Wight) on the 25th July, at Beaulieu on the 20th August, and at Sherborne St. John, Monk Sherborne and The Vyne on the 25th September. An afternoon botanical meeting was held at Chandler's Ford on the 12th June, and the season closed with an archæological ramble round Southampton on the 23rd October. Special thanks are due to Mr. H. Le Roy Lewis, of Westbury Park, and to Mr. W. Chaloner Chute, of The Vyne—both of whom entertained the members of the Club with great courtesy and liberality. The Committee also desire to express their thank to Mr. W. F. G. Spranger, who kindly provided tea at the King's House, Southampton, on the 23rd October.

All the meetings were largely attended and proved of great interest.
