THE HAMPSHIRE FIELD CLUB AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Officers

President:	Maldwin Drummond
Hon. Treasurer:	Mr W. Cooke (to December 1981) Mr P. R. Caudell, (from December 1981) 130 Quayside Road, Southampton.
Hon. General Secretary:	Dr M. Hicks, King Alfred's College, Winchester, SO22 4NR
Hon. Membership Secretaries:	Miss K. Parker and Mr M. Wingate, Hyde House, 75 Hyde Street, Winchester, SO23 7DW

The Society was founded principally to forward the study and appreciation of Natural History Archaeology and History within the County and to encourage the preservation of buildings and other historic remains of importance.

The Society holds annually the O.G.S. Crawford Memorial Lecture and the Annual Conference, the latter in association with the Annual General Meeting. Many additional lectures and field trips are organised by the Sections which are based on the New Forest, geology, local history and archaeology. Members receive the sectional newsletters and are entitled to purchase The Proceedings at a preferential rate.

Annual subscriptions are £5.00 for ordinary members, £7.00 for joint members (i.e. two persons at the same address sharing publications), £2.50 for student members (i.e. full-time registered undergraduates aged 19–23) and £10 for institutional members, who receive one copy of The Proceedings. All other members are entitled to purchase Volume 38 of The Proceedings at £4.00. Application forms may be obtained from the Hon. Membership Secretaries.

EDITORIAL

By the time this Volume appears Dr Edwin Course will have retired from the Editorial Board after a period of sixteen years during which he has served the Society as Industrial Archaeology Editor, Chairman of the Editorial Board, member of Council and President (1977–1980). The Editorial Board and the Field Club are deeply grateful for his tireless enthusiasm and wise counsel over this long span.

The Society gratefully acknowledges grants from Hampshire County Council and King Alfred's College, Winchester, towards the cost of publishing articles on historical topics in this volume, as well as a grant from the Dean and Chapter of Winchester Cathedral towards the cost of the article by P. M. J. Crook, and substantial grants from the Council for British Archaeology and from the Department of the Environment, which have made possible publication of the articles by B. T. Perry (p. 57–74) and P. J. Fasham (p. 19–56), respectively.

Articles intended for publication in the Proceedings should be sent to the Hon Editors, c/o Hyde House, 75 Hyde Street, Winchester, SO23 7DW.
